

Eastern Valley Conference

At Berlin, Freedom successfully defended its conference championship by handily winning the conference meet with 235 points, 93 points better than runner-up Clintonville.

Freedom's first-place finish in the conference meet, plus its unblemished dual meet record, gave it 18 points, two points better than the Truckers.

Key to the championship for Freedom was having six wrestlers finish either first or second at the conference meet, with Tom Schumacher (171 pounds), Luke Vosters (152), Hunter Bloy (135) and Austen Vosters (125) winning individual titles.

Other area wrestlers winning titles were Winneconne's John Roycraft (103) and Nathaneal Miller (145), Clintonville's Exavier Dimick (119) and Cody Wedde (215), Waupaca's Trevor Hinz (130) and Fox Valley Lutheran's Kyle Heise (140).
